A FATHER'S INFLUENCE

When you speak, your spiritual daughters listen

By Sister Clare Matthiass, CFR

When I visit my home parish and greet our pastor with "Hello Father!" I can be sure I'll get a "Hello Daughter!" right back! While he's being light-hearted, he's also recognizing the reality of our family bond within the Church. As you know, each and every daughter in your parish family has a vocation. Sure, most are called to that holy sacrament that makes the world go around—marriage! But there are some called to the religious life (or to the consecrated life in one of its other forms).

What you may not realize, father, is that you have a profound effect on the daughters within your parish. In fact, the longer I am in vocation work the more convinced I become that the parish priest is the single most important agent for women considering a call to consecrated life. You well know that youth today have many voices sounding in their ears, competing for influence in their lives. Their parents are doing their best to protect and guide them.

Hopefully, their teachers are pointing them toward a life of virtue and not only toward achievement and academics. The society at large, though, especially through social media, has far overspent its "two cents" telling young women—your spiritual daughters—what will make them "happy." But what about you, father? Have you let your voice be heard? There is a felt impact when a young woman hears words like these from her parish priest:

- "When I see you week after week at Mass with your family, I can't help but wonder if God might be calling you to Himself."
- "Have you ever considered looking into the Religious Life? Even though we don't have sisters in our Parish, religious life is still alive and well, and God is still calling!"
- "I must ask you if being a sister has ever crossed your mind, because it crosses my mind when I see the way you serve so generously in the parish with our youth."

These words have weight not primarily because of the message but because of the messenger. If I say these same things to the young lady in your parish, her internal warning alarm sounds and she thinks, "It's her job to say that." Or, "She probably says that to all the girls my age." Or worse, "She's trying to recruit me!" But for you, father, it's different. You stand to gain nothing. When you speak, she listens differently. You're a spiritual authority in her life, and you are delivering a message for her sake and not for your sake—and she knows it. Speak, father! Your daughters are listening.

2017 VOCATIONS AWARENESS WEEK

Did you know that in our country, compared to 50 years ago, there are 20,000 fewer priests and 130,000 fewer religious sisters? At the same time, the Catholic population has continued to grow steadily. Many factors have contributed to the decline: growing secularism, a lengthened period of adolescence, attitudes about celibacy, etc.

During Vocation Awareness week, please pray that young people in today's society will hear and respond to God's call. And do your part to encourage them to consider the priesthood and religious life.

One Vocation Leads to Another

"Let us not forget that Christian marriage is a vocation to holiness in the full sense of the word, and that the example of holy parents is the first condition favorable for the flowering of priestly and religious vocations." ~Pope Benedict XVI

Generous Single Life in Christ

The Church recognizes that some people, for various reasons, are not called or cannot live in vocations such as marriage or consecrated life. Nonetheless, the Catechism says "they can contribute greatly to the good of the human family" (#2231). "Some live their situation in the spirit of the Beatitudes, serving God and neighbor in exemplary fashion." (CCC 1658).

NOVENA OF MASSES FOR LIFE

Join us on the 25th of each month through Christmas in praying for a greater respect for all human life. See the scheduled Masses throughout the Diocese at www.dioceseofvenice.org/offices/respect-life/novena-of-masses-for-life.

ARE YOU LOOKING TO BECOME CATHOLIC NEXT YEAR?

For those wanting to enter into the Catholic Church, we have opened up pre-registrations for next year's Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) program. Through this program, you may be baptized (if necessary) and receive the sacraments of Holy Communion and Confirmation. The program examines the teachings, beliefs and practices of the Catholic Church. We are also looking for volunteers for this program.

OFFERTORY ENVELOPE REMINDER

Please pick up your Offertory envelopes if you have not already done so. Why is this so important?

1. Tithing is giving to God a return for ALL that God has first given to us. We respond to God's gift of His Son by being cheerful givers.

2. As a member of this Community of Faith, each of us participates in the responsibility by sharing our talent, time, and treasure to continue St. Elizabeth Seton's role to proclaim Jesus' Gospel. The parish needs everyone's support- no matter the quality of talent, the amount of time, or the dollar amount of one's tithe.

3. Offertory envelopes save you and our staff extra work during tax season when gathering vital donation records.

So please stop by the office to pick up your envelopes during office hours. Peace and thanks.

DÍA NACIONAL DE CONCIENCIA DE LAS PERSONAS CON SIDA

Reconocemos en este día a esos niños, mujeres y hombres de todas las edades, orígenes, culturas y etnias que viven con esta enfermedad. Seguimos orando por ellos, sus familiares, cuidadores y el equipo médico. Recordamos cómo algunos hicieron de esta enfermedad una condena y una sentencia de juicio de Dios, rezamos para que encontremos su curación también. Este día nos invita a considerar cómo la enfermedad puede crear divisiones y soledad entre las personas.

Pero elegimos responder como discípulos de Cristo y miembros de nuestra tradición de fe católica romana para incluir a todos los que se ven afectados por esta enfermedad y no sentir y ser excluidos. De hecho, los hospitales administrados por hermanas religiosas católicas fueron de los primeros en aceptar y atender a pacientes con SIDA. Agradecemos a Dios por estos "doctores de la misericordia", por los avances tecnológico, por los médicos, y por la compasión mostrada a todas las personas. Paz y gracia

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING ON IMMIGRATION

The Catholic Catechism instructs the faithful that good government has two duties, both of which must be carried out and neither of which can be ignored.

The first duty is to welcome the foreigner out of charity and respect for the human person. Persons have the right to immigrate and thus government must accommodate this right to the greatest extent possible, especially financially blessed nations: "The more prosperous nations are obliged, to the extent they are able, to welcome the foreigner in search of the security and the means of livelihood which he cannot find in his country of origin. Public authorities should see to it that the natural right is respected that places a guest under the protection of those who receive him." Catholic Catechism, 2241.

The second duty is to secure one's border and enforce the law for the sake of the common good. Sovereign nations have the right to enforce their laws and all persons must respect the legitimate exercise of this right: "Political authorities, for the sake of the common good for which they are responsible may make the exercise of the right to immigrate subject to various juridical conditions, especially with regard to the immigrants' duties toward their country of adoption. Immigrants are obliged to respect with gratitude the material and spiritual heritage of the country that receives them, to obey its laws and to assist in carrying civic burdens." Catholic Catechism, 2241.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) opposes "enforcement only" immigration policies and supports comprehensive immigration reform.

NATIONAL DAY OF AWARENESS OF PEOPLE WITH AIDS

We recognize on this day all children, women and men of all ages, backgrounds, cultures and ethnicities who live with this disease.

We continue to pray for them, their family members, caretakers and medical team. We remember how some made this disease a condemnation and sentence of judgement by God, and we pray that we seek their healing as well.

This day invites us to consider how illness can create divisions and loneliness among people. But we choose to respond as disciples of Christ and members of our Roman Catholic Faith Tradition to include all who are affected by this disease not to feel and be excluded.

In fact, hospitals managed by Roman Catholic religious sisters were one of the first to accept and care for AIDS patients. And so we thank God for these "doctors of mercy," for the technological and medical advances, and for compassion shown to all people. Peace and grace.
