HELP ENSURE LONG-TERM SUPPORT OF ST. ELIZABETH SETON PARISH AND SCHOOL

Through the generosity and Catholic Legacy of parish and school families, St. Elizabeth Seton Catholic School presently has two endowment funds with the Catholic Community Foundation of Southwest Florida. Endowment funds are designed to assist in providing long-term stability and sustainability beyond a donor's lifetime.

By creating or participating in endowment funds, donors both confirm and extend beyond their lifetime a commitment and conviction to Christ Jesus' mission and ministry of the Gospel proclamation of God's Kingdom among us. Additionally, endowment funds secure St. Elizabeth Seton Catholic Church and the School's future to form disciples and apostles of Christ Jesus for our community and the community-at-large. If we as a faith community and school seek to discern and respond to the future, we must plan for it as well.

Once an endowment is established, it is open to anyone wanting to contribute, in any amount desired. The endowment funds are structured so that the original gift amount (or principal) remains intact, while the investment earnings are used to support our parish and/or school. This creates a reliable and consistent revenue stream to help supplement funding for programs, ministries, future construction, and the needs for St. Elizabeth Seton Catholic Church and the School's future.

Many endowment funds are created through gifts from wills or trusts, however, several donors choose to fund endowments while they are still living, so that they can see the fruit and impact of their commitment and support. There are numerous ways to fund an endowment including gifts of cash, securities, property, and more.

We encourage and invite each of us to pray and consider supporting this program. Creating or contributing to an endowment fund to support a favorite program and/or ministry will permit a legacy to future generations seeking to grow in faith, hope, and love.

Thank you from all the students and staff of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton School.

DOMINGO SACERDOTAL

El domingo del sacerdocio, el último domingo de octubre, es un día especial reservado para honrar el sacerdocio en los Estados Unidos. Es un día para reflexionar y afirmar el papel del sacerdocio en la vida de la Iglesia como uno central.

Los sacerdotes tienen una misión crítica: llevar personas a Jesús y Jesús a las personas. Son padres espirituales para millones de católicos. Predican el Evangelio y ofrecen el sacrificio de la misa. En resumen, los sacerdotes son testigos vivos de Cristo en el mundo, hombres de carácter fuerte que se destacan en nuestra cultura secular.

Los fieles solo esperan una cosa de los sacerdotes: que sean especialistas en promover el encuentro entre el hombre y Dios. No se le pide al sacerdote que sea un experto en economía, construcción o política. Se espera que sea un experto en la vida espiritual. - Papa Benedicto XVI

Únase a nosotros para honrar a los sacerdotes de nuestra parroquia y de la diócesis en este día, y ore por ellos en su ardiente y desafiante vocación.

AL MIRAR LA CRUZ

"Al mirar la cruz y recordar las formas específicas en que las personas comparten en su misterio, hay muchas perspectivas que deben considerarse. Resaltaré solo uno: el misterio esencial de la cruz es que da lugar a un cierto tipo de soledad, una incapacidad para ver claramente cómo se desarrollan las cosas, una incapacidad para ver que, en última instancia, todas las cosas funcionarán para nuestro bien, y que, de hecho, no estamos solos". El Don de la Paz del Cardenal Joseph Bernardin.

LET'S REVIEW THE ORIGINS OF ALL SAINT'S AND ALL SOUL'S DAYS

All Saints' Day is a solemn holy day of the Catholic Church celebrated annually on November 1. The day is dedicated to the saints of the Church, that is, all those who have attained heaven. It should not be confused with All Souls' Day, which is observed on November 2, and is dedicated to those who have died and not yet reached heaven.

Generally, All Saints' Day is a Catholic Holy Day of Obligation, meaning all Catholics are required to attend Mass on that day, unless they have an excellent excuse, such as serious illness.

Other countries have different rules according to their national bishop's conferences. The bishops of each conference have the authority to amend the rules surrounding the obligation of the day.

All Saints' Day was formally started by Pope Boniface IV, who consecrated the Pantheon at Rome to the Virgin Mary and all the Martyrs on May 13 in 609 AD. Boniface IV also established All Souls' Day, which follows All Saints.

The choice of the day may have been intended to co-opt the pagan holiday "Feast of the Lamures," a day which pagans used to placate the restless spirits of the dead.

The holy day was eventually established on November 1 by Pope Gregory III in the mid-eighth century as a day dedicated to the saints and their relics. The May 13 celebration was subsequently abandoned.

In Ireland, the Church celebrated All Saints' Day on April 20, to avoid associating the day with the traditional harvest festivals and pagan feasts associated with Samhain, celebrated at the same time.

Following the establishment of the Frankish Empire, and following the reign of Charlemagne, the holy day, which was already celebrated on November 1, became a holy day of obligation by decree of Pope Gregory IV and Louis the Pious, who was king over a portion of Charlemagne's former empire.

Following the Protestant Reformation, many Protestants retained the holy day, although they dismissed the need to pray for the dead. Instead, the day has been used to commemorate those who have recently died, usually in the past year, and to remember the examples of those who lived holy lives.

The Catholic practice however, celebrates all those who have entered heaven, including saints who are recognized by the Church and those who are not.

It is important to remember these basic facts:

- Halloween is a secular holiday that comes the night before All Saints' Day.
- All Saints' Day is on November 1, and it is a Holy Day of Obligation.
- All Souls' Day is on November 2, and it is NOT a Holy Day of Obligation.
