JESUS: YOU WILL SUFFER

Earthquakes. Famines. Epidemic illnesses. National and cultural conflicts. Wars. Violence. Religious persecution. No, these are not the recent headlines from google news (though they most certainly could be). Rather, these are what Jesus identifies as the trials and tribulations that his followers would suffer. This is very distinct from the prosperity or, what some call the "health and wealth" Gospel embraced and preached by prominent "evangelists" and even celebrities. Some hold to the erroneous notion that if we follow Jesus, and we are in his will, that we will have money, we will have health and that everything will always go our way. While this kind of message is appealing for obvious reasons, it's not quite the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Jesus has indeed come to set us free from suffering, sin, and even death itself. But this life on earth is often filled with suffering, even in the holiest of people. As Our Lady told St Bernadette to whom she appeared at Lourdes: "I cannot promise you happiness in this life, but in the next." This message is consistent with Our Lord Jesus who told us: "Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me." (Matthew 16:24) And Jesus again in this Sunday's gospel passage tells us that we, his Church will suffer tribulations and even persecutions. Christ does not take away our sufferings, he does even more, he redeems them. "Not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives." (Luke 21:19)

Jesus is making the promise that while the troubles of this world will ultimately destroy the world, his Church will stand forever. This is a bold claim to make in a time when there has been much scandal, polarization, and corruption in the Church herself. As a verse in the 19th Century Hymn "The Church's One Foundation" observes:

*Though with a scornful wonder
Men see her sore oppressed
By schisms rent asunder
By heresies distressed
Yet saints their watch are keeping
Their cry goes up how long
And soon the night of weeping
Shall be the morn of song*

Being confronted with the humanity of the Church will always give us a cause for prayer, just as the tribulations of the world. However, we have cause to rejoice, because the Church will always proclaim the truth of Jesus Christ, which alone makes us free, even when, and perhaps even especially, when the men of the Church fail to preach and live that truth.

Jesus Christ does protect his elect, his Church in that in the midst of suffering in the condition of a corrupt world, he gives us an out, an entry into eternity for him. The admission into this kingdom is not free, but it was paid for us by the ultimate act of Mercy, the Cross of Jesus which stands firm and strong in a world torn by chaos and tribulation.

-Fr Casey

SEEKING MUSICIANS FOR THE KINGDOM!

We are looking for musicians and singers to join our growing Music Ministry. We are looking for instrumentalists (piano, organ, guitar, bass, percussion) as well as vocalists to help beautify the Liturgy.

Our choir is currently mixed between teens and adults, and sings at the 10am Sunday Mass. In January, the Parish is starting a 5pm Mass with contemporary music to coincide with our Youth Group kick off. If you are interested, stop by after Mass, or email Jon at jniven@stelizabethseton.org. Rehearsals are on Thursday evenings at 7pm in the St. Joseph Room.

HELP ENSURE LONG-TERM SUPPORT OF ST. ELIZABETH SETON PARISH & SCHOOL

Through the generosity and Catholic Legacy of parish and school families, St. Elizabeth Seton Catholic School presently has two endowment funds with the Catholic Community Foundation of Southwest Florida. Endowment funds are designed to assist in providing long-term stability and sustainability beyond a donor's lifetime.

By creating or participating in endowment funds, donors both confirm and extend beyond their lifetime a commitment and conviction to Christ Jesus' mission and ministry of the Gospel proclamation of God's Kingdom among us. Additionally, endowment funds secure St. Elizabeth Seton Catholic Church and the School's future to form disciples and apostles of Christ Jesus for our community and the community-at-large. If we as a faith community and school seek to discern and respond to the future, we must plan for it as well.

Once an endowment is established, it is open to anyone wanting to contribute, in any amount desired. The endowment funds are structured so that the original gift amount (or principal) remains intact, while the investment earnings are used to support our parish and/or school. This creates a reliable and consistent revenue stream to help supplement funding for programs, ministries, future construction, and the needs for St. Elizabeth Seton Catholic Church and the School's future.

Many endowment funds are created through gifts from wills or trusts, however, several donors choose to fund endowments while they are still living, so that they can see the fruit and impact of their commitment and support. There are numerous ways to fund an endowment including gifts of cash, securities, property, and more.

We encourage and invite each of us to pray and consider supporting this program. Creating or contributing to an endowment fund to support a favorite program and/or ministry will permit a legacy to future generations seeking to grow in faith, hope, and love.

Thank you from all the students and staff of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton School.

JESÚS: SUFRIRÁS

Terremotos. Hambrunas. Enfermedades epidémicas. Conflictos nacionales y culturales. Guerras. Violencia. Persecución religiosa. No, estos no son los titulares recientes de Google News (aunque ciertamente podrían serlo). Más bien, esto es lo que Jesús identifica como las pruebas y tribulaciones que sufrirían sus seguidores. Esto es muy distinto de la prosperidad o, lo que algunos llaman el Evangelio "salud y riqueza" abrazado y predicado por prominentes "evangelistas" e incluso celebridades. Algunos se aferran a la idea errónea de que si seguimos a Jesús, y estamos en su voluntad, que tendremos dinero, tendremos salud y que todo siempre seguirá nuestro camino. Si bien este tipo de mensaje apela por razones obvias, no es del todo el evangelio de Jesucristo.

Jesús ciertamente ha venido a liberarnos del sufrimiento del pecado, e incluso de la misma muerte. Pero esta vida en la tierra a menudo está llena de sufrimiento, incluso en la gente más Santa. Como la Virgen le dijo a Santa Bernadette (Bernardita) a quien se le apareció en Lourdes: "No puedo prometerle felicidad en esta vida, sino en la siguiente". Este mensaje es consistente con Nuestro Señor Jesús, quien nos dijo: "Quien quiera ser mi discípulo debe negarse a sí mismo, tomar su cruz y seguirme." (Mateo 16:24) Y Jesús, de nuevo en el pasaje del Evangelio de este Domingo, nos dice que nosotros, su Iglesia, sufrimos tribulaciones e incluso persecuciones. Cristo no nos quita nuestros sufrimientos, sino hace mucho más, los redime. "Ni un pelo en tu cabeza será destruido. Con su perseverancia asegurarán sus vidas". (Lucas 21:19)

Jesús está haciendo la promesa de que si bien los problemas de este mundo en última instancia destruirán al mundo, la Iglesia permanecerá para siempre. Esta afirmación es audaz en una época en la que ha habido mucho escándalo, polarización y corrupción en la misma Iglesia. Como dice un verso de un Himno del siglo XIX "La Iglesia es Una Fundación":

Aunque con una maravilla desdeñosa
Los hombres ven su dolorosa opresión
Por divisiones creadas
Por herejías afligidas
Sin embargo, los Santos mantienen su atención
Sus gritos elevándose aguardando el momento
Para que pronto la noche de llanto
Sea mañana de canción y alabanza

Si bien al ser confrontada con su humanidad, la Iglesia siempre nos dará una causa para la oración, al igual que las tribulaciones del mundo, tenemos motivos para regocijarnos. Porque la Iglesia siempre proclamará la verdad de Jesucristo, que por sí sola libera incluso cuando, y especialmente cuando los hombres de la Iglesia no predicán y viven esa verdad.

Jesucristo protege a sus elegidos, a su Iglesia, y en medio del sufrimiento de un mundo corrupto, nos da una salida, una entrada a la eternidad con él. La admisión a Su Reino, no es gratis, pero fue pagada por nosotros por el último gran acto de Misericordia, la Cruz de Jesús que está firme y encadena en un mundo desgarrado por el caos y la tribulación.

ABORTION AND POVERTY/CRIME

Abortion advocates often argue that the unborn babies of poor mothers are better off aborted and abortion reduces the crime rate.

However, the truth is that the violence of abortion has begot more violence and crime, not less. The pro-choice people have had more than 45 years to weed out all the "unwanted children" yet, we have more child abuse, more spousal abuse, more deadbeat dads, more gangs, more drugs, more homelessness and more crime. The list goes on and on.

By stating that the children of poor people are less entitled to have their lives protected than those of the rich, the writer is plainly of the view that the economic status of a family should be what determines whether children are worthy to be born or not. Laws against robbery and drug-dealing might impact the poor more than the rich, but that does not prevent us from passing and enforcing them. The reason is simple: Robbery and drug dealing, like abortion, are wrong, regardless of the socio-economic class of hypothetical people who might commit these activities.

The solution to poverty is not found in killing the children of the poor. We have been doing that since 1973. Our experience proves that it clearly does not work. Killing poor children is only the solution of "choice" for wealthy elitists. Perhaps a hidden agenda is at work here.
